

How to use Aroma Mocha Cafe Application

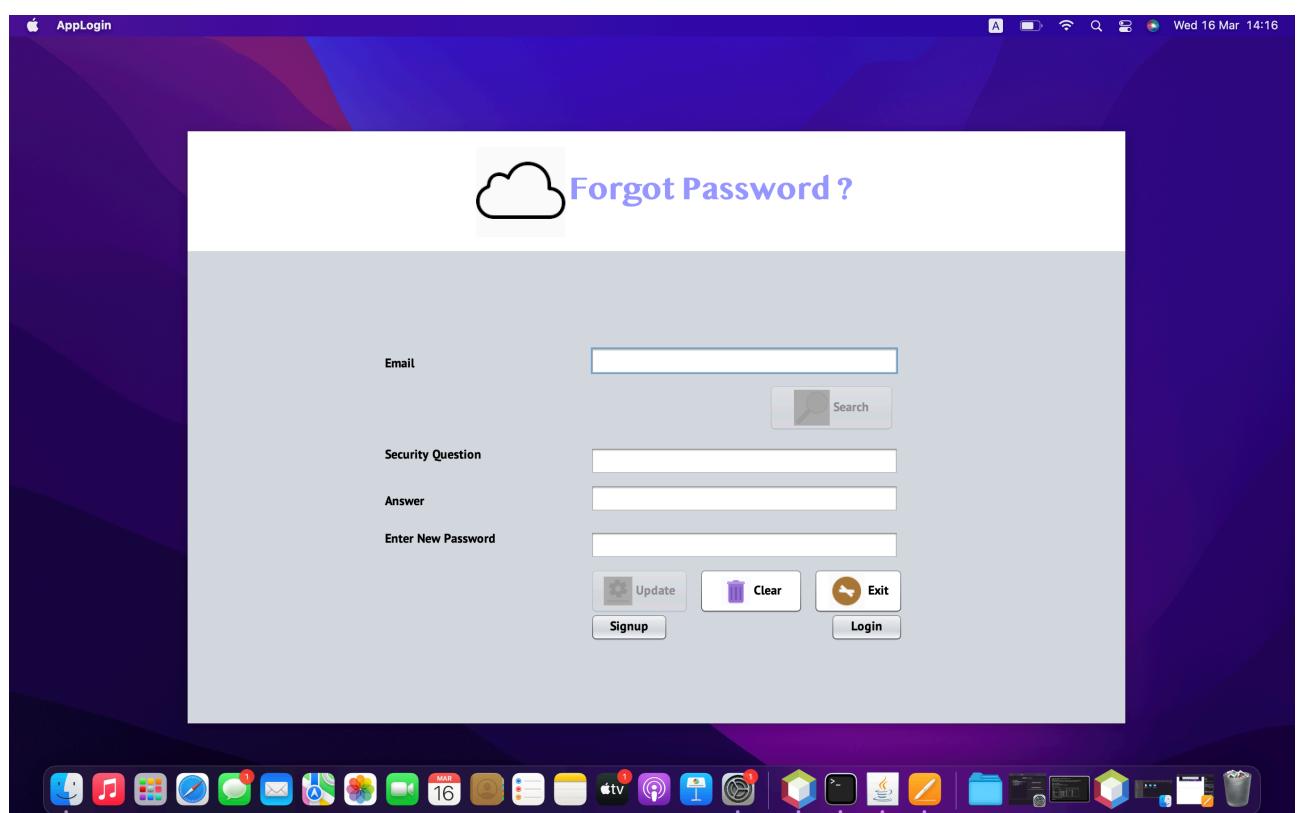

1.Login

- 1.Enter admin email address and password(email-admin1@gmail.com password-add123 you have to enter correct email patter to enable login button) /also you can use a user account to login
email-udaraekanayake1@gmail.com
Password- 19960904
- 2.You can login if your password and email is correct
- 3.Clear button will clear all fields
- 4.Exit button will close the application
- 5.Forgot password option is for users that forgot their passwords
- 6.New users can sign up

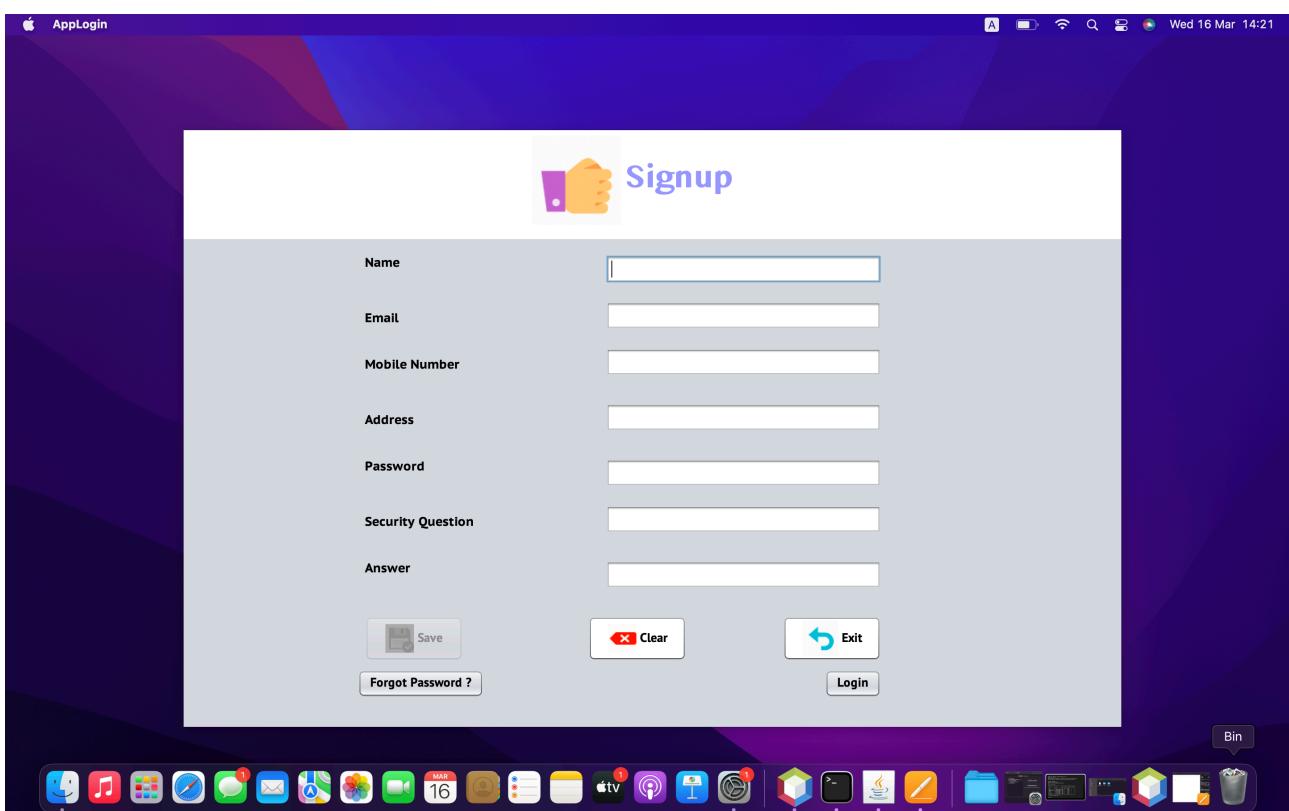

2.Forgot Password

- 1.User can search there account by using their emails
- 2.when registered email is input by the user his / her security question Will shown in the security question field
- 3.After enter the correct security question answer user is enable to change their password
- 4.Clear button clear all fields and the exit button close the application
- 5.User can move up to the login and sign up forms back

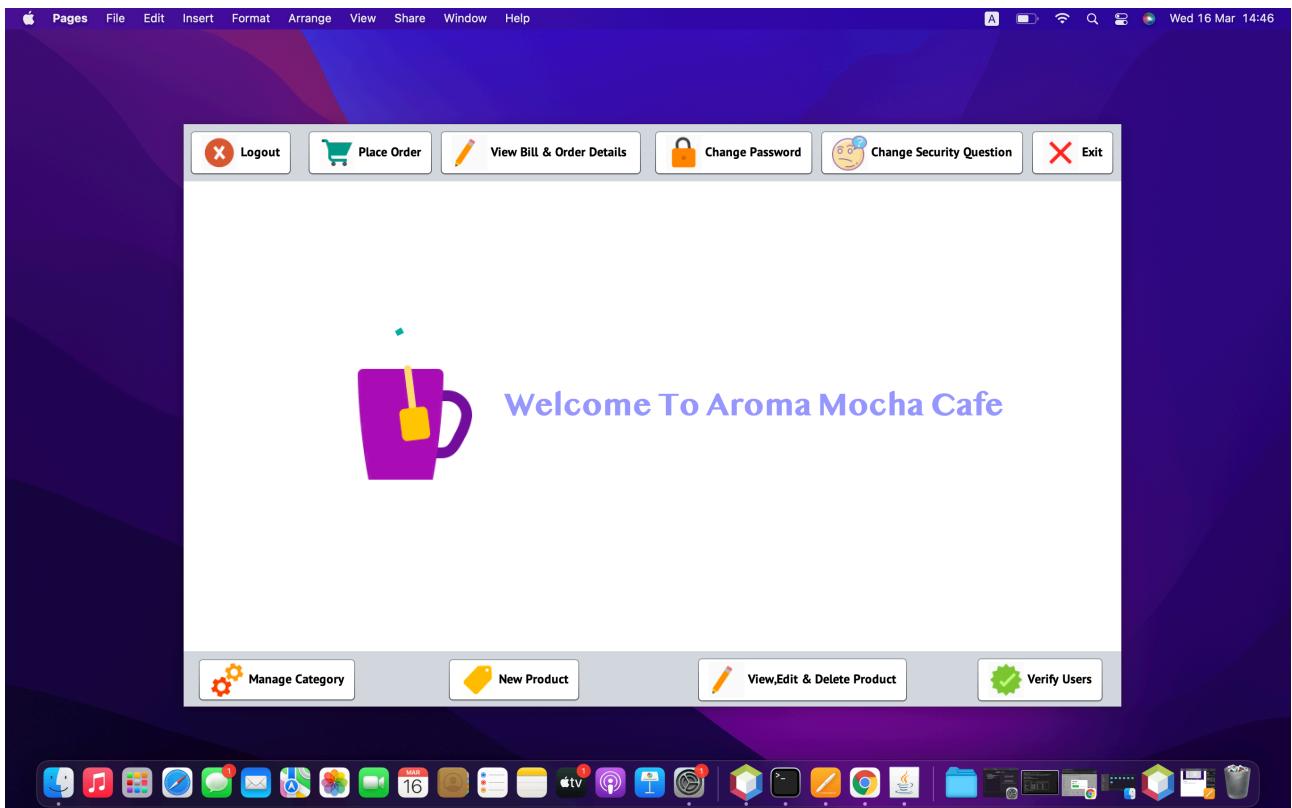

3.Sign Up

- 1.Create new account and save user details by save button
- 2.Clear all fields by clear button and close the application by exit button
- 3.Move back to forgot password and login from

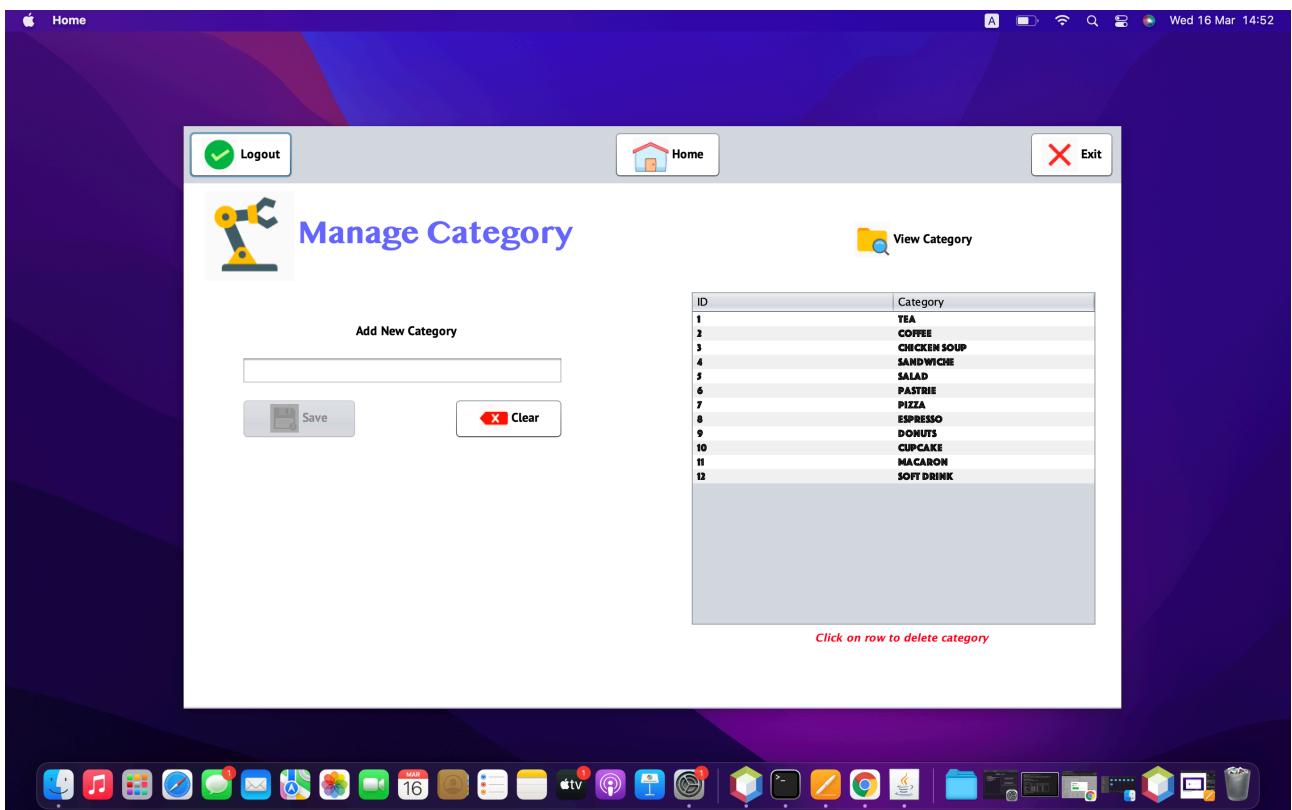

4.Home

- 1.If you login as an admin you can see the manage category , new Product , view edit delete product and verify user options as well
- 2.If you log with an user account only user can see the place order ,view bill ,change password ,change security question option only (all options are visible only for the admin)
- 3.Logout will return to the login page

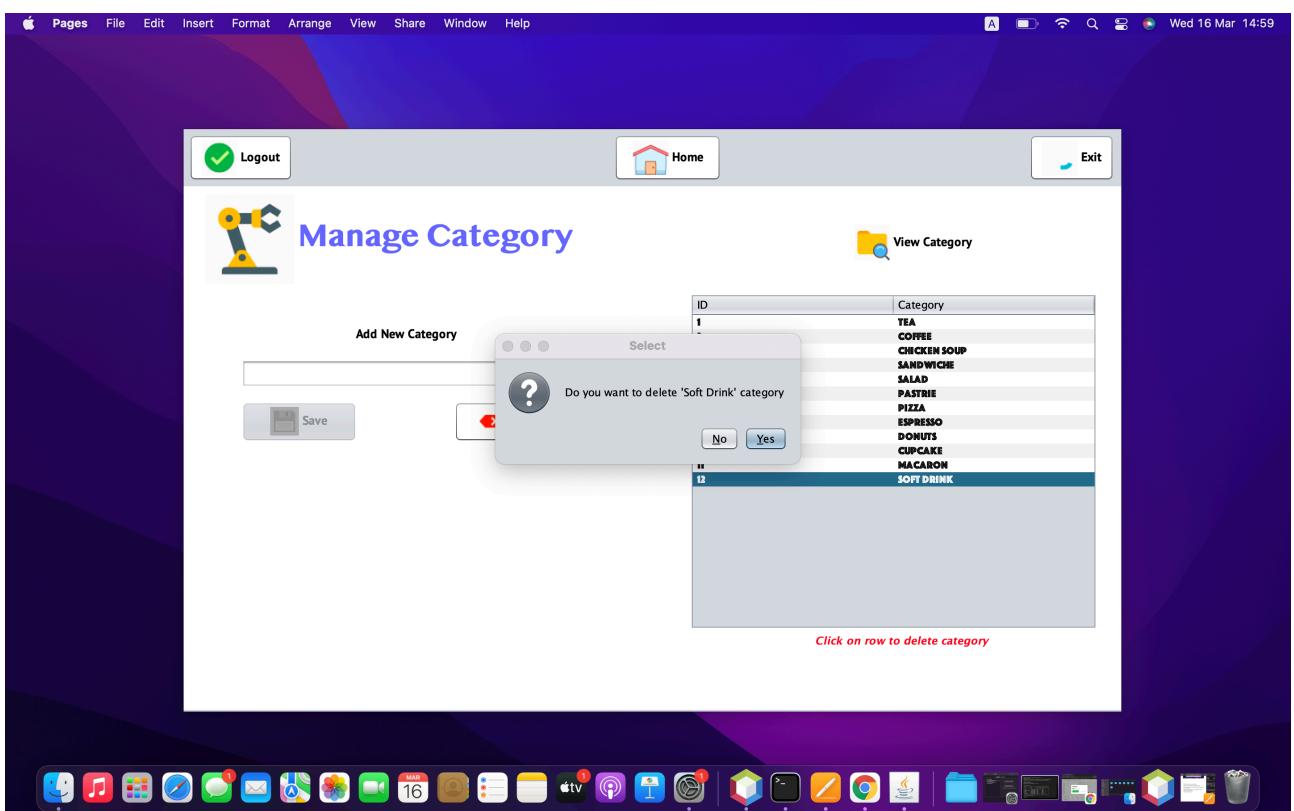

4.Exit will close the application

5.Manage Category

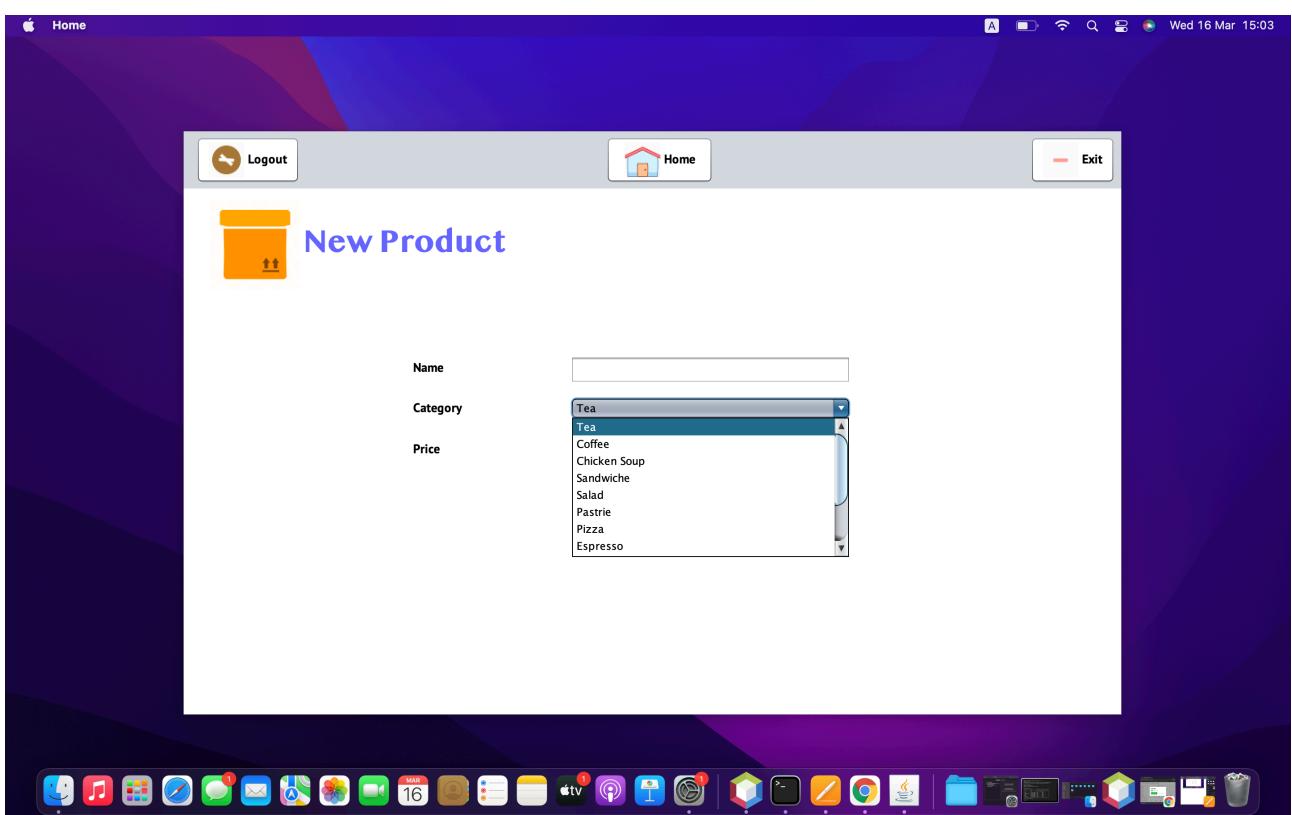

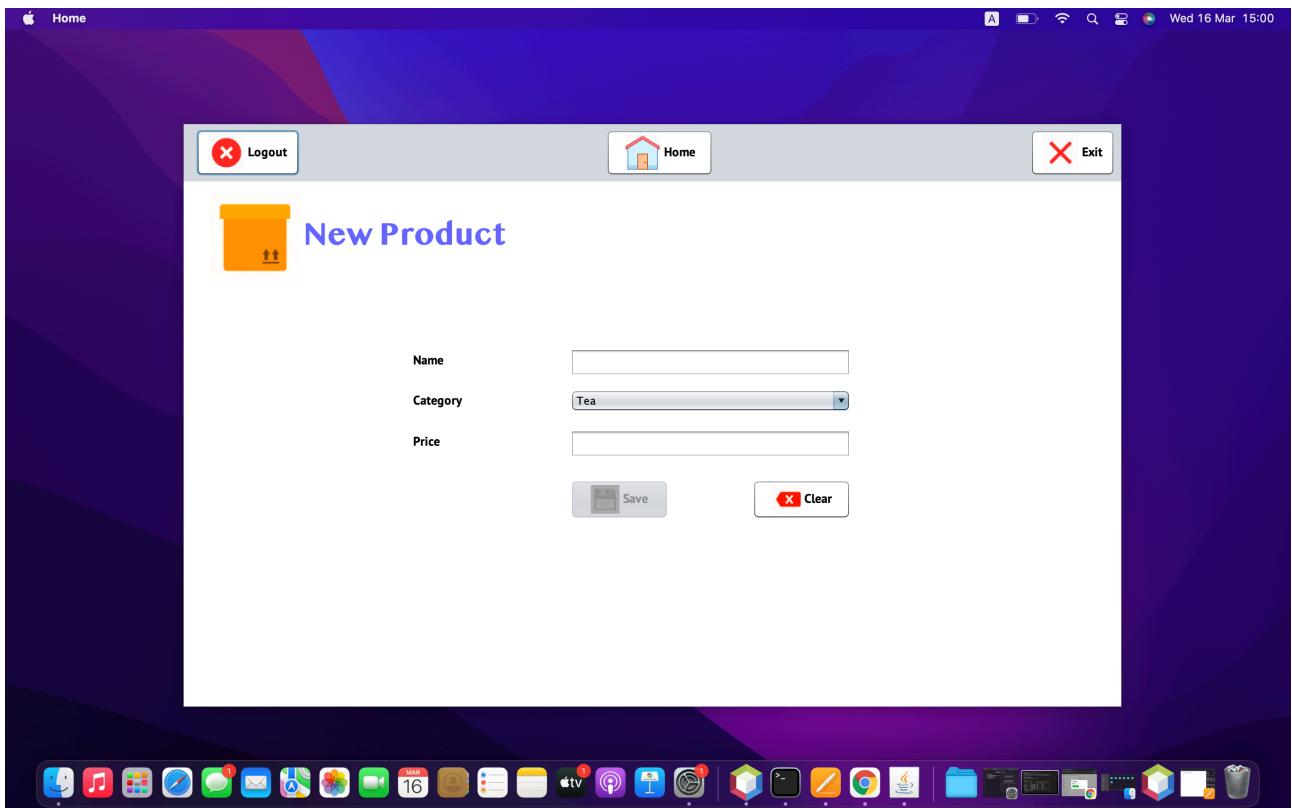

- 1.Home button return user to the home page
- 2.Admin can add new category to the application (Save)
- 3.When admin add a product (Save) the view category table update With new category(Successfully save msg shown)
- 4.Admin can delete the category from the application by clicking Clicking on the category rows (Will ask for the confirmation as Below)

- 5.Clear button clear the txt field

6.New Product

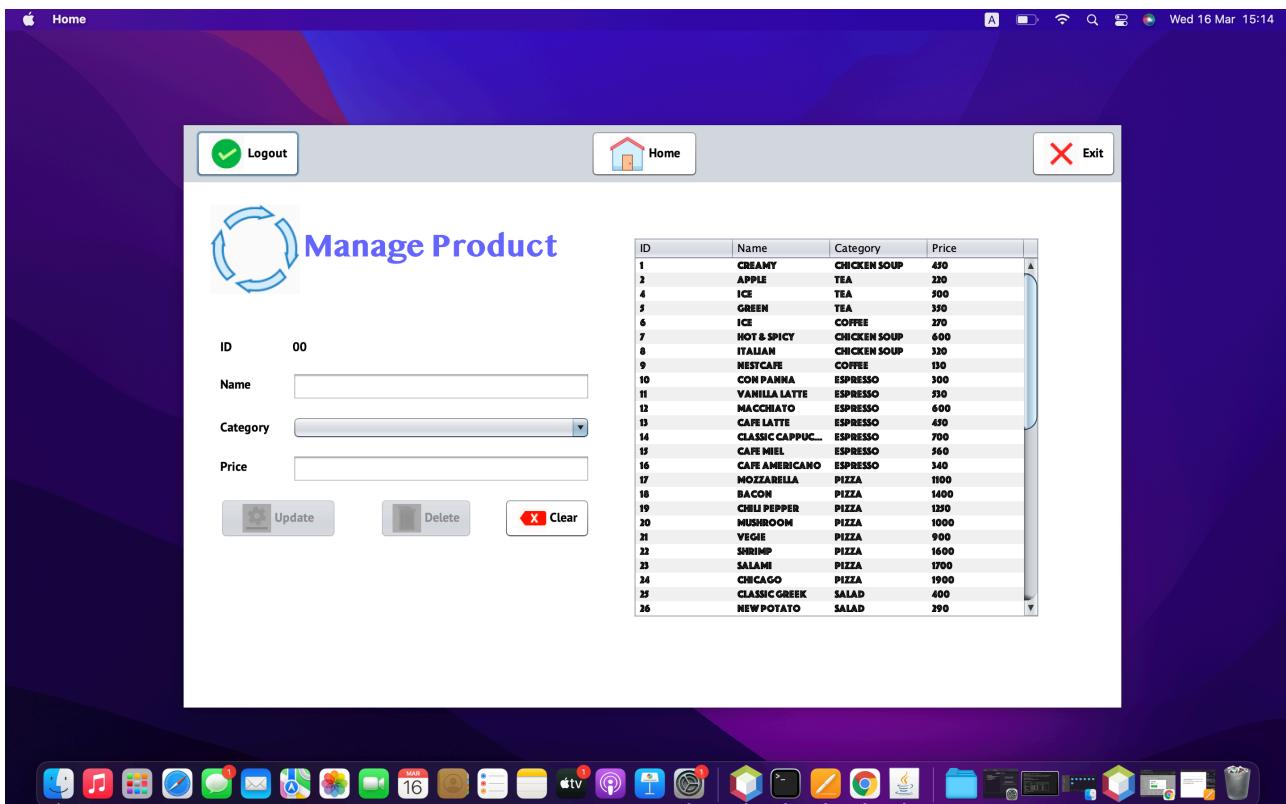

- 1.All added category will visible in the category combo box

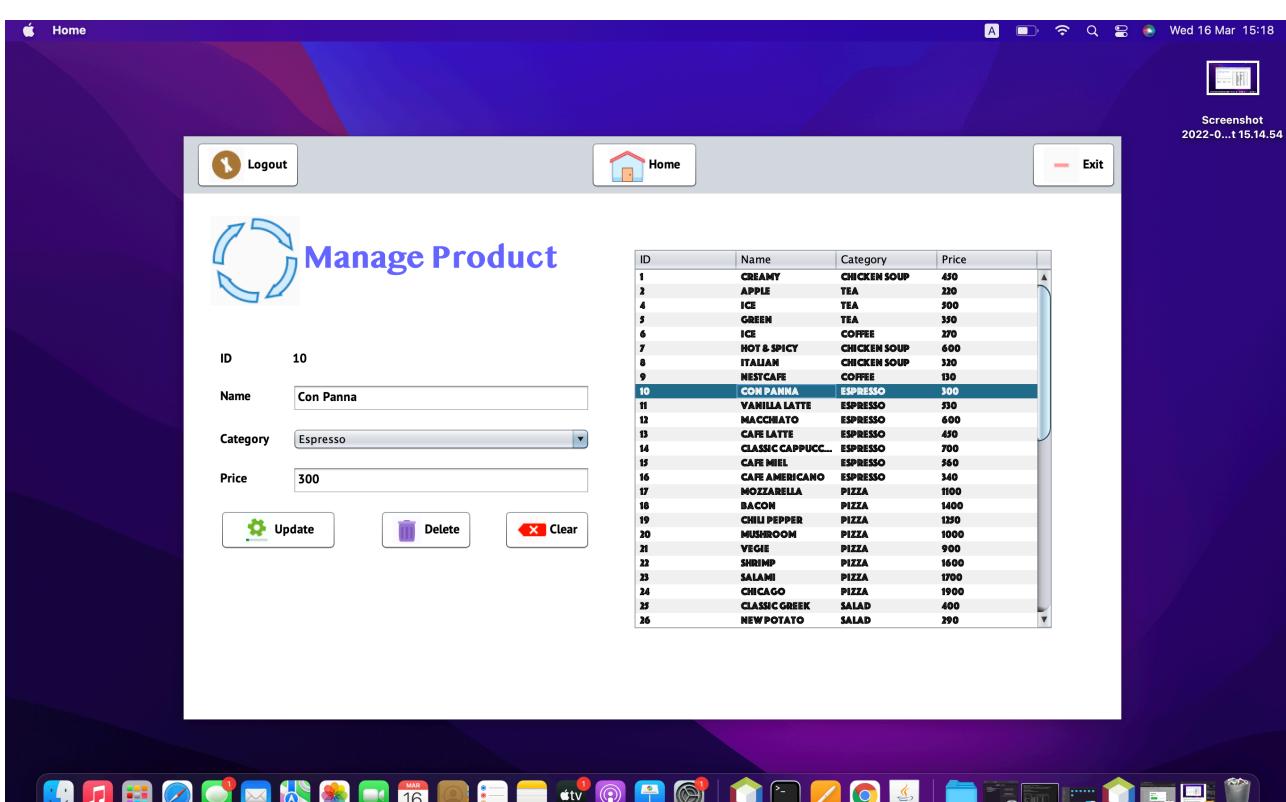

2. Save button will enable to click after the only the admin enter the category name and the price.

3. After save it will show successfully save message to the admin

7. View Edit Delete Product

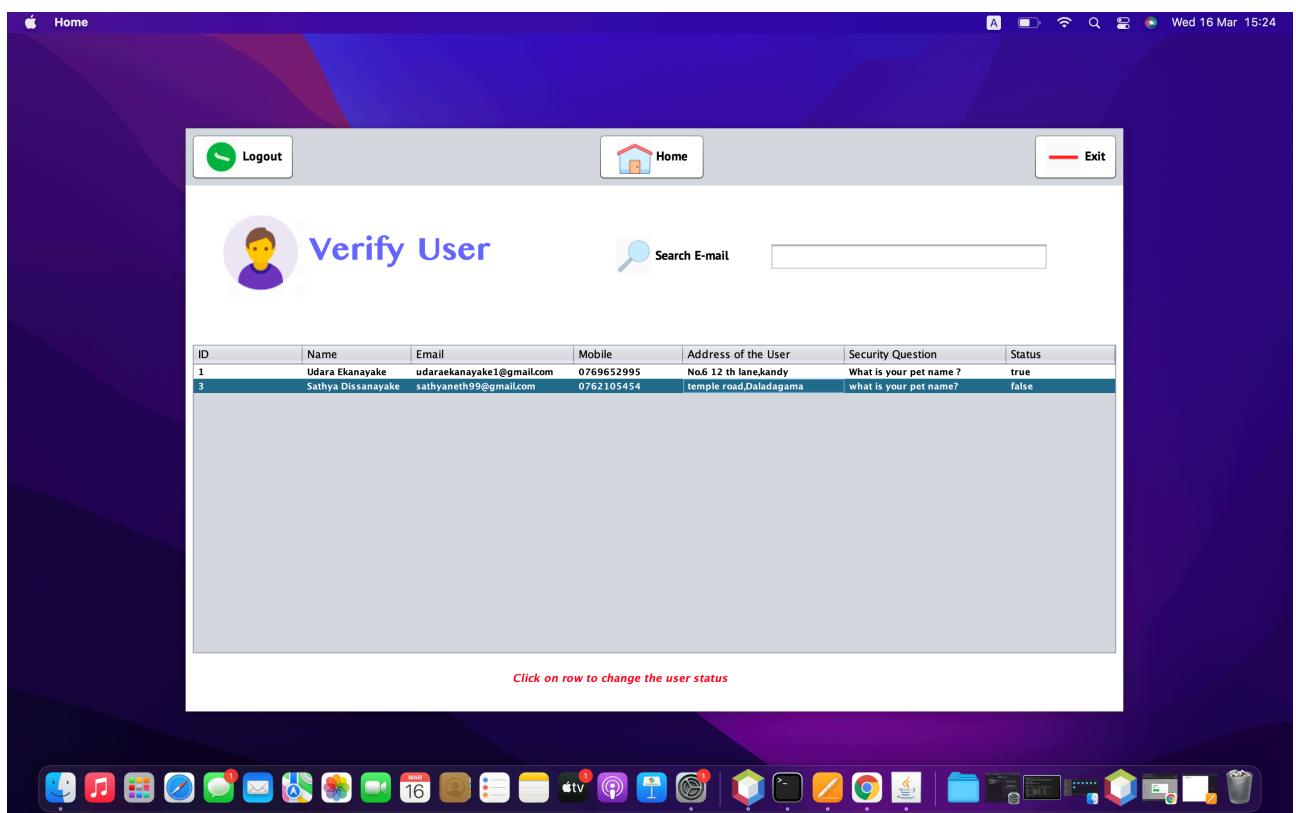

//After click on the table row

1. All the available products are available in the table with their ID numbers
2. When you click on the table row the given fields and the category combo box are automatically filled with those details according to admin choose.
3. Update, delete button use for the update details and for delete products (Suitable msg will be shown for the update and for delete)

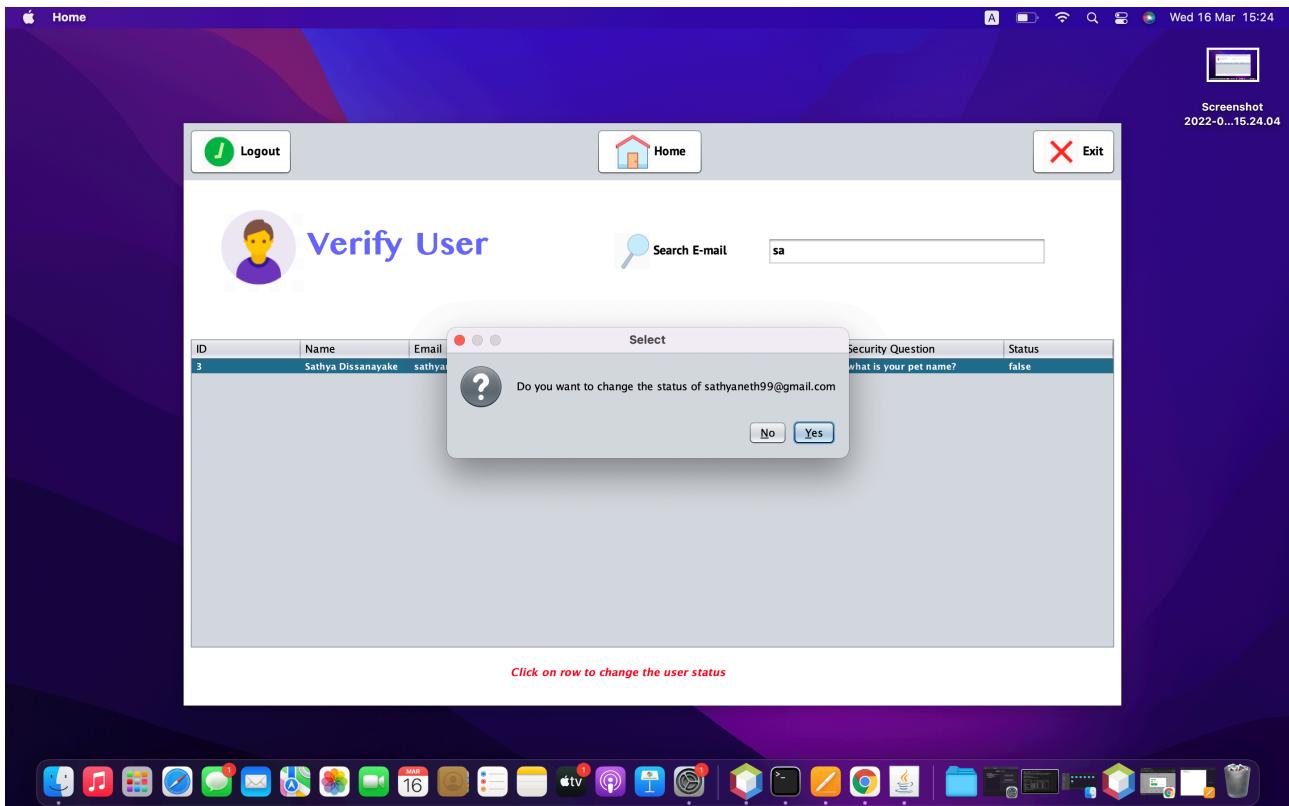

8. Verify User

//before change status

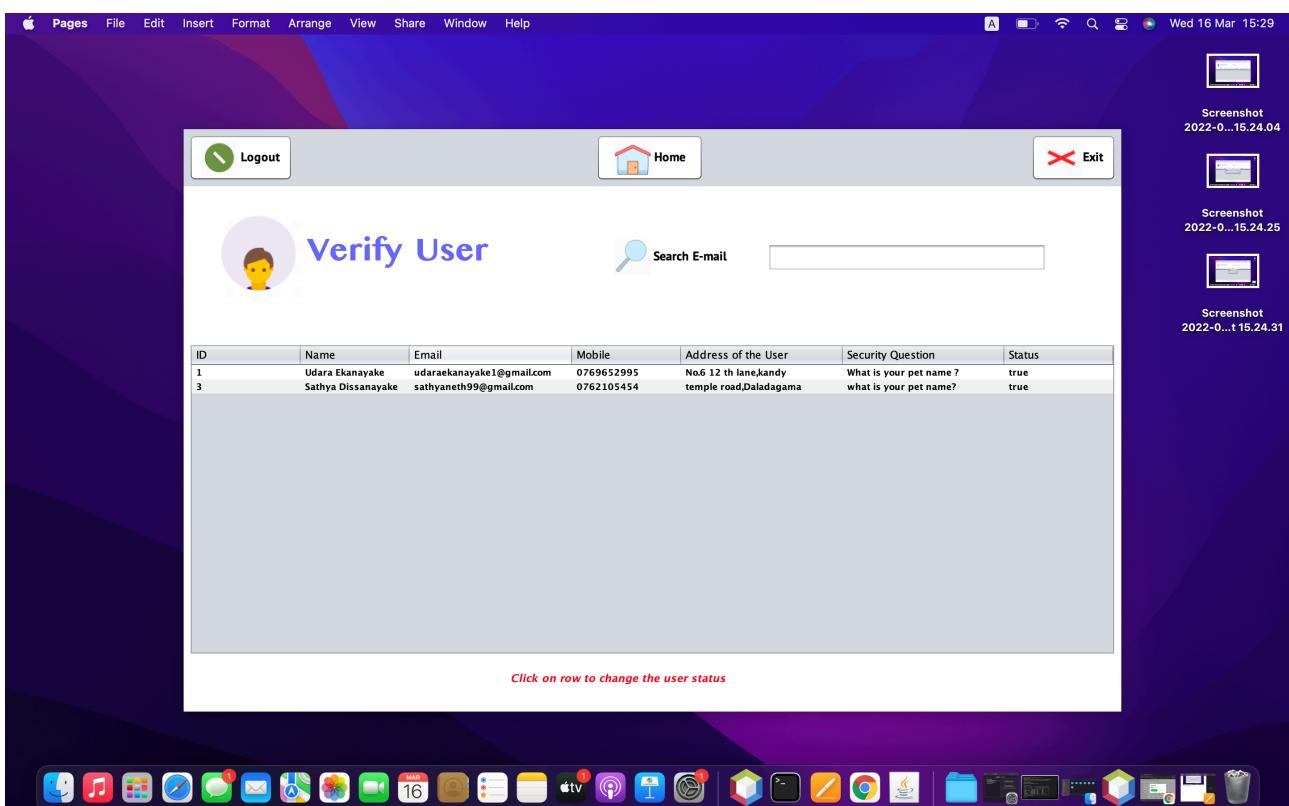

1. Admin can search users by their email address
2. When click on the table row the admin enable to change the status Of the users
3. It will ask for the status change confirmation

//ask for the confirmation

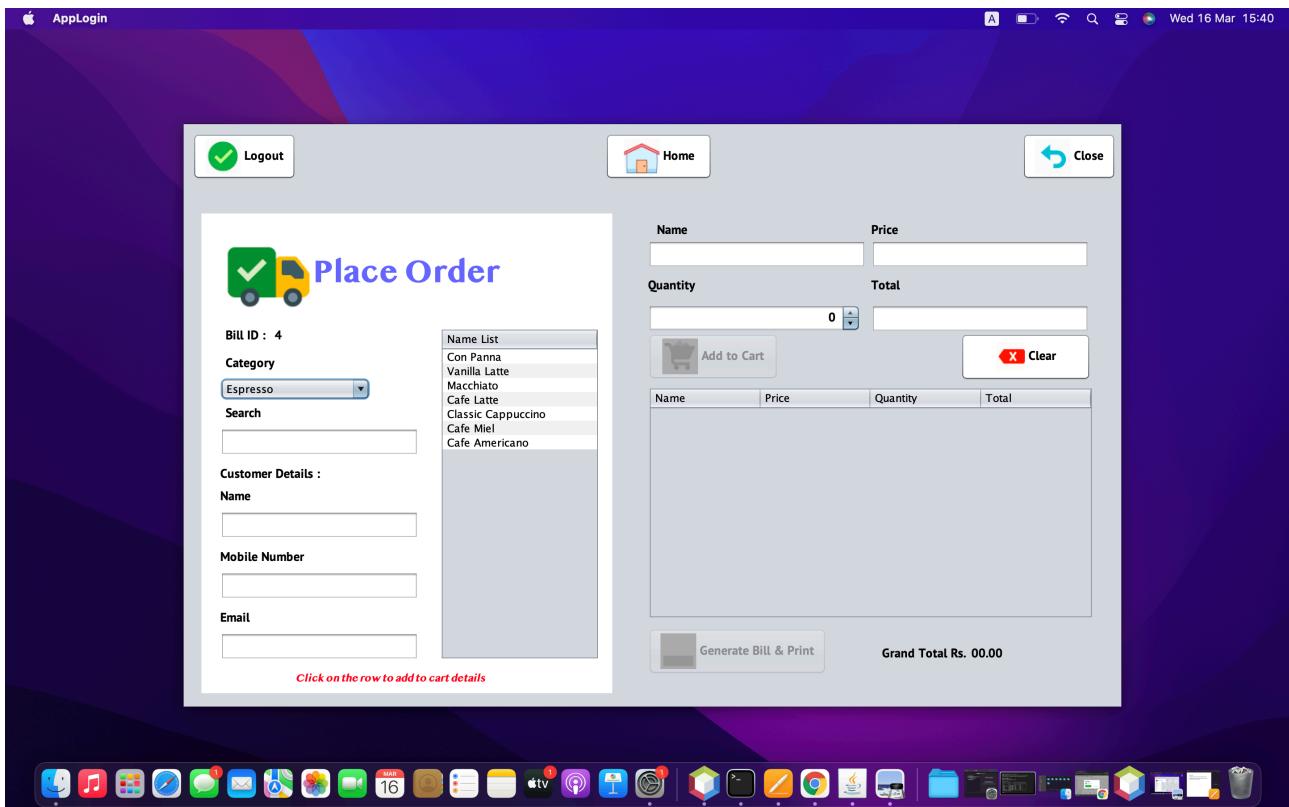

//after change the status

9.Place Order

1.Available category can be select in the category combo box

2.According to the user choice the All Product names of choose category will visible in the name table

3.User can search product by their name

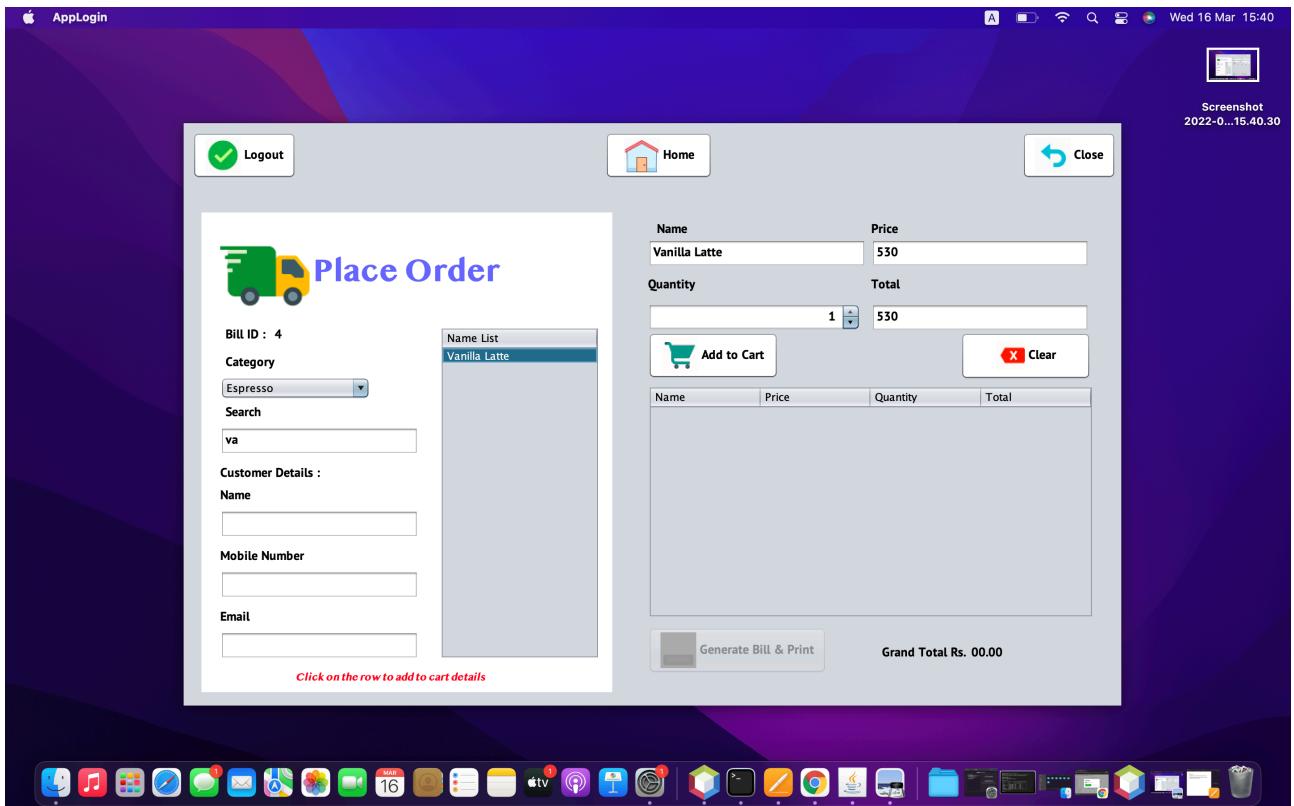

4.Once user click on the product name , the product details will Automatically added to the add to cart fields.(User can change the Quantity)

5.Total will change according to the quantity

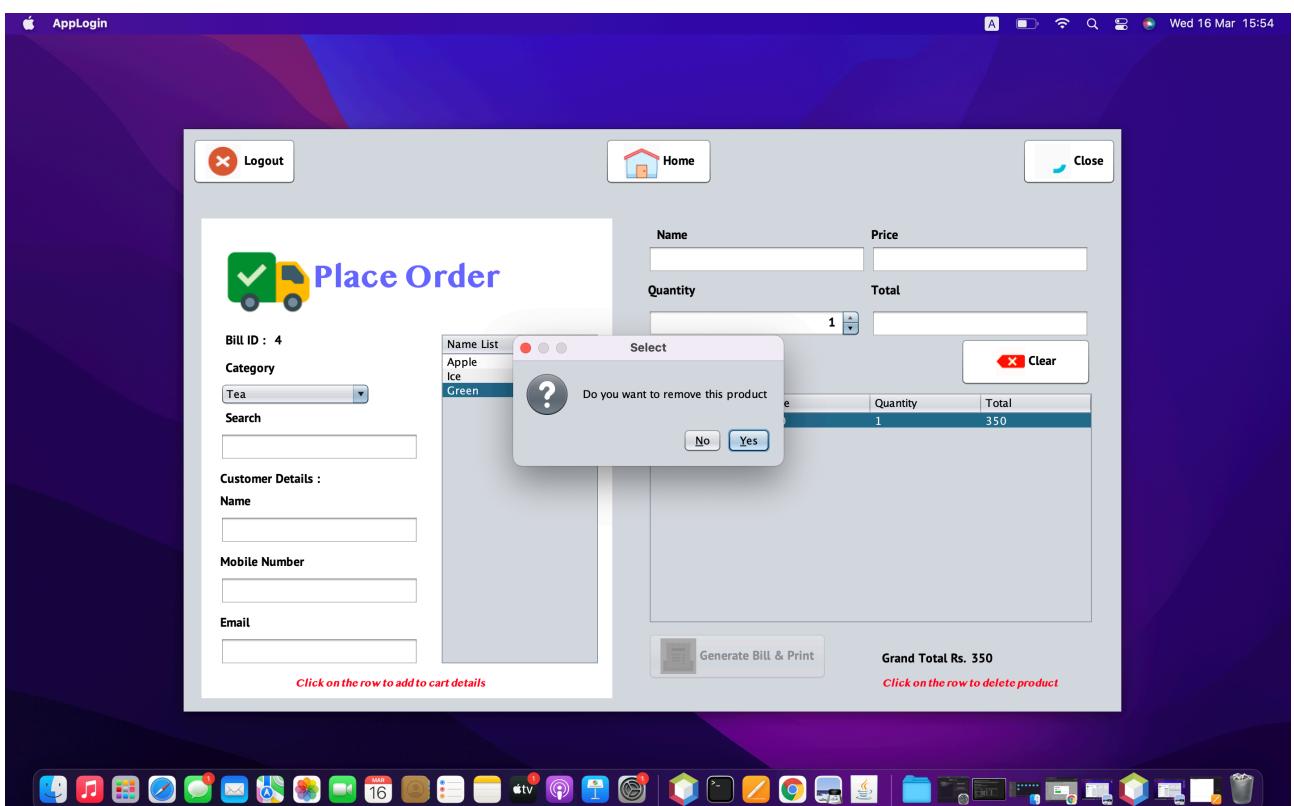

6.After add to the cart the those details can see on the table

7.User can delete added details from the table (also add to cart fields will clear)

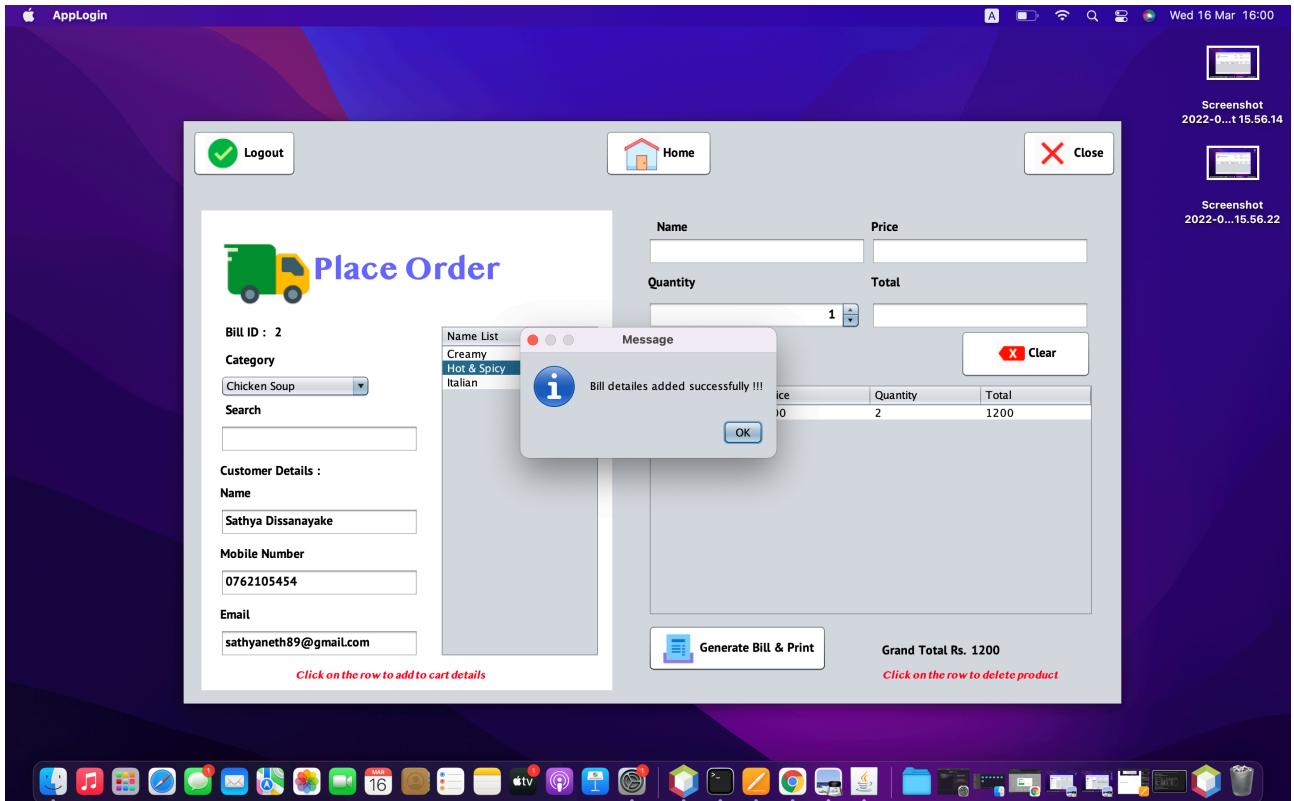

//add to cart details

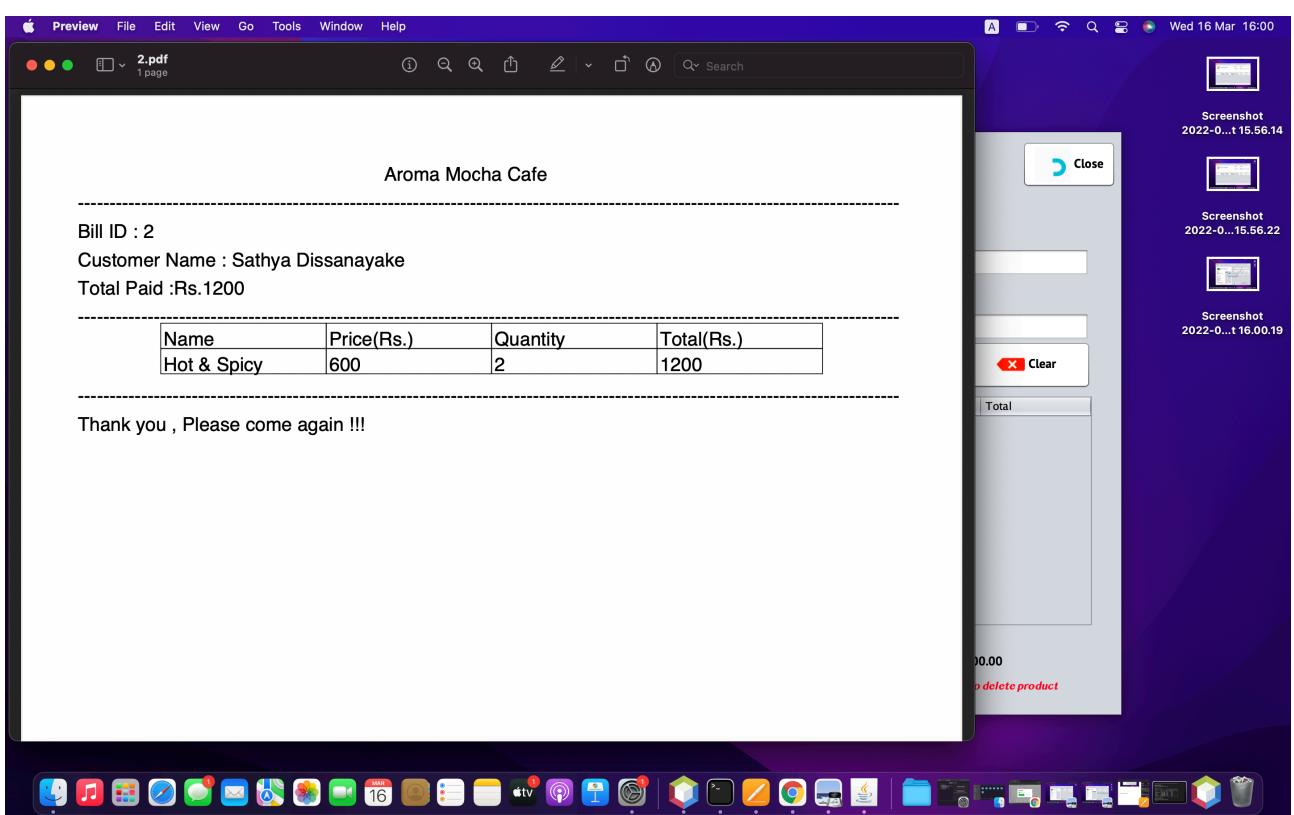

//delete add details

8. Once you generate the bill the bill will automatically print and show //bill created

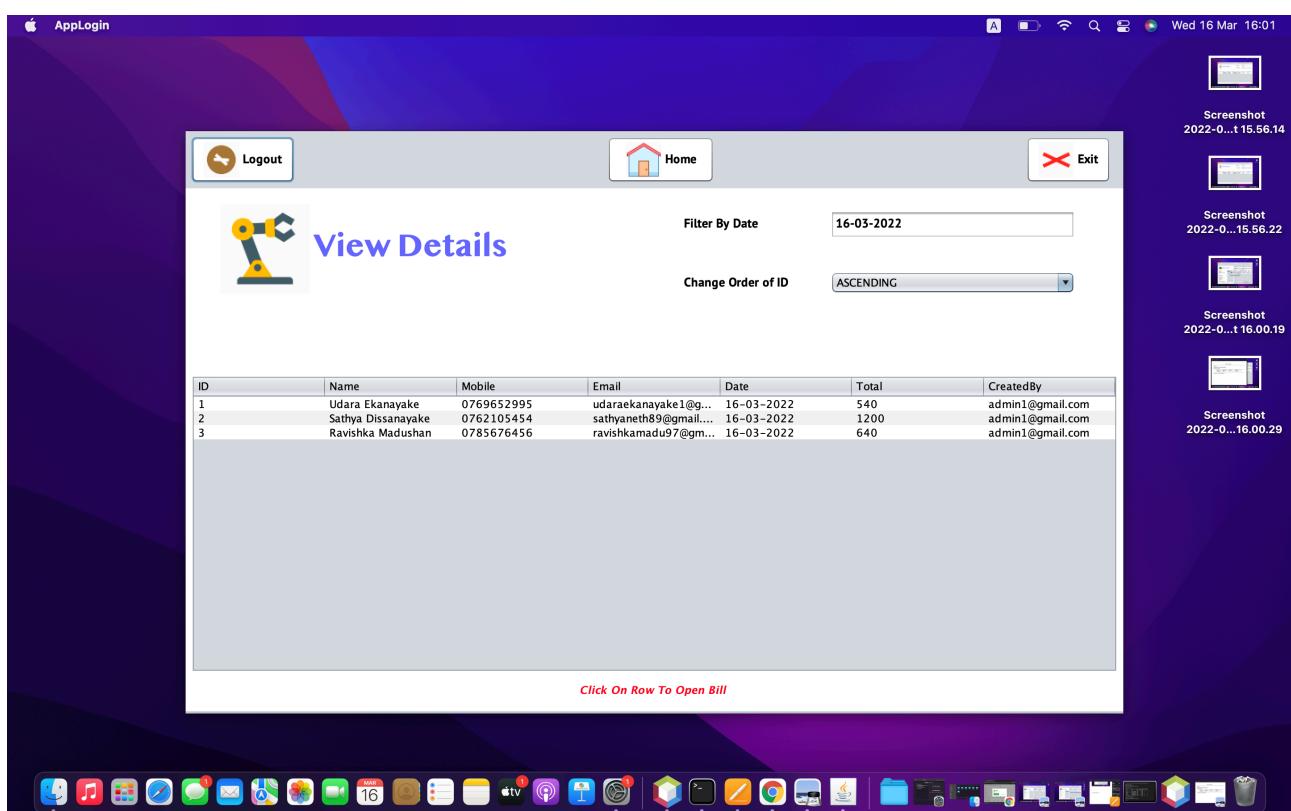

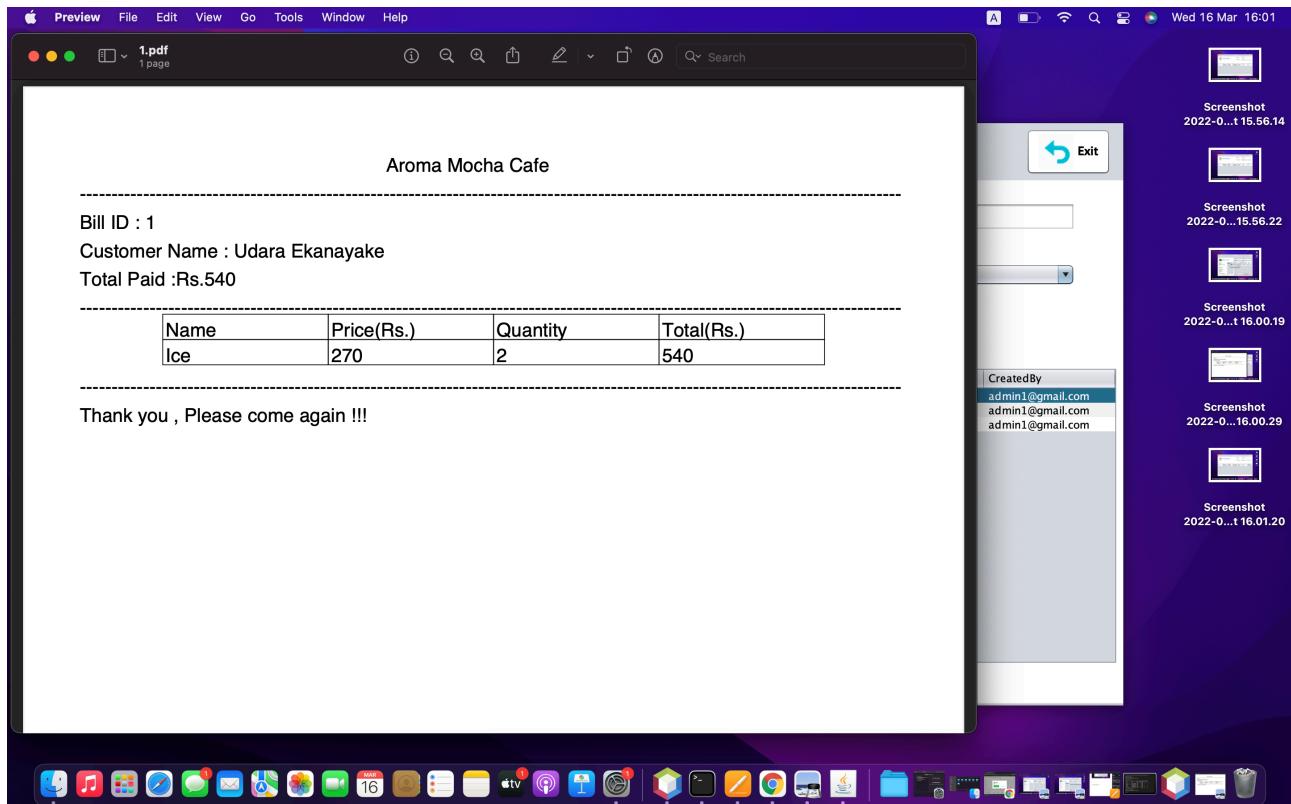

//after press ok

10. View Bill and Order Details

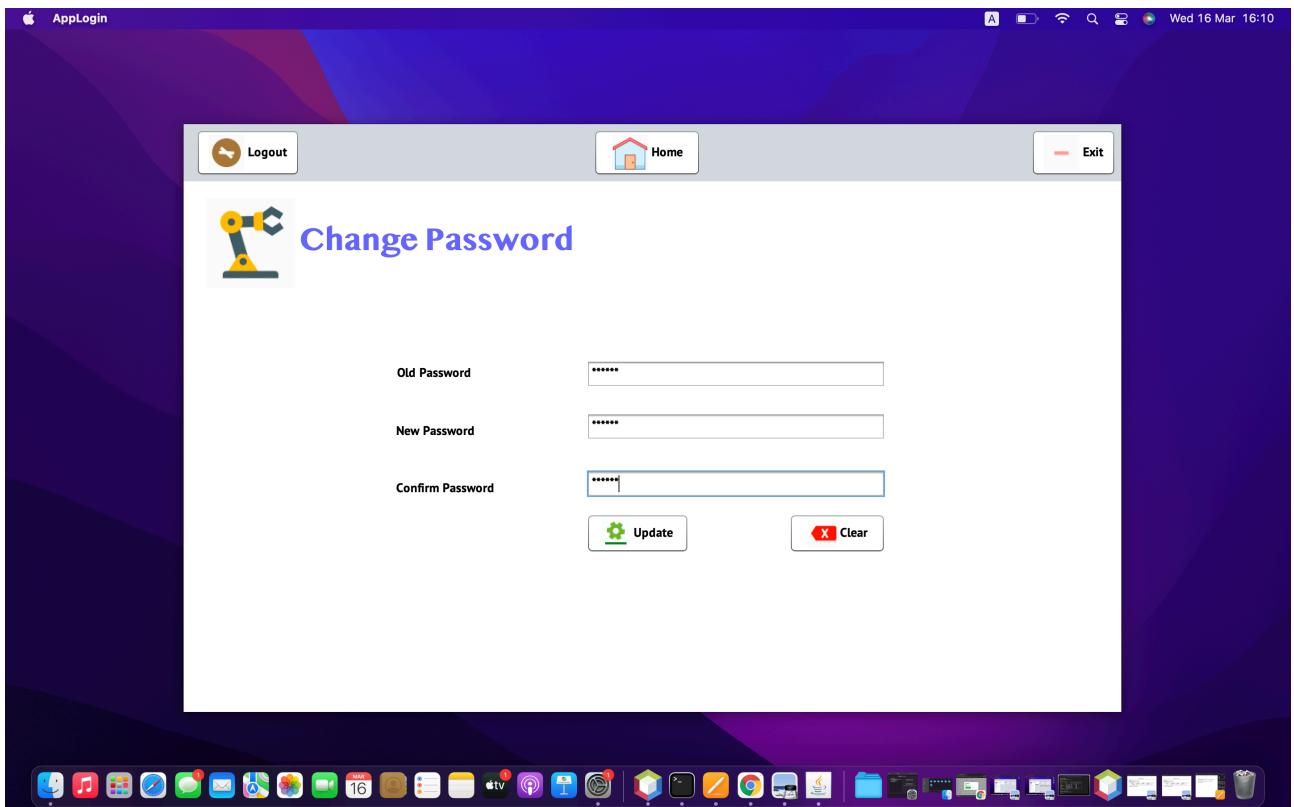

1. Filter by date option is for search bills according tho the date month or the year

2.Ascending and descending option are available to view bill by the Order of the bill ID

3.User can view the bill by clicking on the rows on the table

11.Change Password

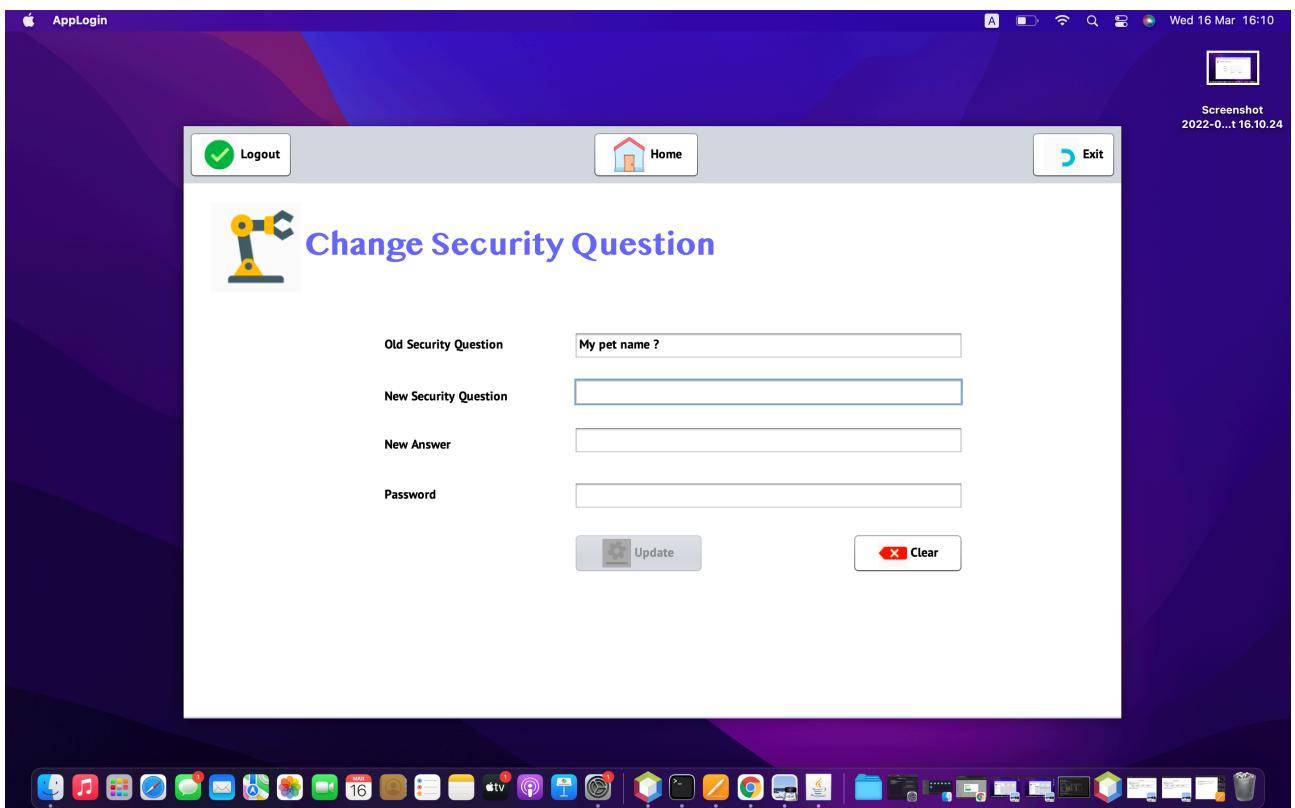

1.User have to enter the correct old password to change the password

2.New password and the confirm password fields must be same to Enabled to click the update button

3.Button update will update the old password by the new password

12.Change Security Question

- 1.Old security question will automatically load to the fields when load
The form(according to the user that currently logged in)
- 2.New security question and new answer fields must be filled
Password must be correct to enabled the update button to update
The security question.